Meeting of BRICS Heads of Revenue and Experts on Tax Matters
[5-6 December 2016: Mumbai]

The Meeting of BRICS Heads of Revenue and Experts on Tax Matters was held on 5-6 December 2016 in Mumbai. The meeting was conducted with the primary objective of promoting international tax cooperation and exchanging relevant knowledge and experience.

During the meeting, the BRICS Heads of Revenues reiterated their support to all International initiatives towards reaching a globally fair and universally transparent tax system.

The meeting saw discussions amongst the BRICS Experts on Tax Matters on sharing of the best practices in BRICS countries on improving compliance through non-intrusive means, progress and issues arising out of implementation of BEPS Action Plan Point 13 and also the role of the United Nations in setting tax rules.
